Checklist for prioritizing action

An action priority will meet most of these criteria. Use this checklist to compare your action possibilities to help you choose the best one(s) for your group. Alternatively, develop your own criteria and chart for setting your direction!

WILL TAKING THIS ACTION...

- ☐ ☐ ☐ likely result in a real improvement in addressing this concern?
- ☐ ☐ ☐ have a lasting impact?
- ☐ ☐ ☐ be winnable? (within your timeframe and resources)
- ☐ ☐ ☐ be widely and deeply felt?
- ☐ ☐ ☐ be both fun and challenging?
- ☐ ☐ ☐ have a clear timeframe that works for the group?
- ☐ ☐ ☐ give people a sense of their power?
- ☐ ☐ ☐ match our interests, passions, and mission?

Adapted from: The Midwest Academy 28 E. Jackson Blvd. #605, Chicago IL 60604 www.midwestacademy.com

© UP for Learning

Blank checklist for prioritizing action: Make your own criteria

Use this checklist to compare your action possibilities to help you choose the best one(s) for your group. Develop your own criteria and chart for setting your direction!

WILL TAKING THIS ACTION...

Compare three possible actions, one column of checkboxes for each, and see which is your best action priority.

	action #1:	action #2:	action #3:
☐
☐
☐
☐
☐
☐
☐
☐

Adapted from: The Midwest Academy 28 E. Jackson Blvd. #605, Chicago IL 60604 www.midwestacademy.com

© UP for Learning